Charles Street Upgrade – Development project

- Charles Street Square at Parramatta Quay is a project to renew the public domain of the foreshore adjacent the Parramatta Ferry Wharf. It will be transformed into a vibrant public space and an accessible entry point to the City of Parramatta that celebrates the Parramatta River
- It is a comprehensive upgrade providing new public spaces, stair and ramped connections, shelter, landscape, lighting and artwork. Work will be beginning in late 2021 and be completed late 2022. Tendering of the project for construction is due to begin shortly. The project is in the order of $10.0m.
- The NSW Government is a contributing funding partner to Council on the project through the Public Space Legacy Program, and the Transport Access Program.
- The full timeline for the project is :
  - o September to October 2020: Consultation on Review of Environmental factors (REF)
  - o February 2021: REF released
  - o March 2021: Archaeological test excavations completed
